

Sample size: 1,517 Adults in Great Britain
 Framework: 2008-2010 May 2004

Total	Gender		EU 15 Vote		EU 19 Issue					Age			Generation				Region		Social Grade		Fast Vote Political Groups				Voting Intention				Children 18 or Under		Work Status		Work Status (prev)		Normal Turnout	Owned Overight	House Type	Savings
	Male	Female	Remain	Leave	C	L	LD	DM	Other	18 to 24	25 to 34	35 to 44	45+	Generation Z	Millennials	Generation X	Baby Boomers	London	South of England	Midlands	North	Wales	Scotland	ABC1	C2DE	Con Remainers	Lab Remain	Lab Diss	Cons	Lab	Lib Dem	Other	Yes	No					Part time	Unemployed	Other	Working (All)	Not Working (All)
1517	720	797	620	897	105	413	183	90	139	112	220	205	222	380	200	148	418	693	359	422	250	383	74	120	880	229	382	140	113	242	243	553	118	424	380	1028	489	227	290	197	132	881	148	137	158	881	148	137	158	881	148	137	158

Q1. Please think about the rights of people who are protesting on marches or elsewhere, and the rights of other people not protesting about anything, but who may or may not be affected by the protestation.

In balancing the rights of protesters and the rights of others, in each of the following situations do you think the police should intervene to stop the protesters, or not intervene to stop the protesters?

The protesters are holding banners with slogans

Response	Yes	No
37%	167	183
24%	200	225

The protesters are holding banners containing racist or controversial slogans

Response	Yes	No
100%	468	524
66%	639	676

The protesters are chanting loudly in a way that some people could find intimidating

Response	Yes	No
74%	338	404
49%	476	526

The protesters are holding banners or chanting slogans that are threatening or implying violence to specific groups of people or to the public

Response	Yes	No
118%	543	632
102%	109	100

The protesters are approaching passes by a school or other threaten them

Response	Yes	No
127%	590	682
84%	816	873

The protesters are deliberately obstructing the road, street or traffic from passing

Response	Yes	No
116%	49	63
12%	14	19

The protesters are blocking access to people's workplaces

Response	Yes	No
117%	548	627
78%	729	806

The protesters are blocking access to private or public buildings such as shops or museums

Response	Yes	No
113%	547	586
75%	778	826

The protesters are blocking access to public transport, such as tube or railway stations

Response	Yes	No
126%	459	628
79%	828	876

The protesters are climbing on buildings or public monuments

Response	Yes	No
117%	554	619
13%	150	160

The protesters are causing damage to public property

Response	Yes	No
128%	607	671
84%	828	885

The protesters are causing damage to private property

Response	Yes	No
126%	607	671
84%	828	885

Table with columns representing various regions (North West, North East, Yorkshire and the Humber, East of England, West Midlands, East Midlands, Wales, Scotland, South East, London, North West) and rows of data.

Q05: Which of the following best describes your current work status?

Table with columns for work status categories (Working full-time, Working part-time, Not working, Retired, Student, Housewife/Househusband/Home maker, Prefer not to answer) and rows of data.

Q06: Is the house or flat which you live in?

Table with columns for housing categories (Owned without mortgage, Owned with a mortgage or loan, Rented from the council, Rented from a housing association, Rented from someone else, Bare floor, Prefer not to answer) and rows of data.

Q07a: Please indicate which one of the following best describes the profession of the chief income earner in your household?

Table with columns for professions (High managerial, administrative or professional, Intermediate managerial, administrative or professional, Supervisor, administrator or professional, Skilled manual worker, Semi-skilled or unskilled manual worker, Factory worker, Housewife / Househusband / Home maker, Unemployed, Student, Retired, Prefer not to answer) and rows of data.

All those in household with retired chief income earner

Q07b: You previously worked as the chief income earner in your household but are retired. Please indicate which one of the following best describes the profession of the chief income earner in your household (SEE RETIRE TEST RESULTS)

Table with columns for professions (High managerial, administrative or professional, Intermediate managerial, administrative or professional, Supervisor, administrator or professional, Skilled manual worker, Semi-skilled or unskilled manual worker, Factory worker, Housewife / Househusband / Home maker, Unemployed, Student, Prefer not to answer) and rows of data.